Cast Your Voice- Create a Podcast

Free three-day workshop programme for young people aged 16+

Learn all the skills you need to create a podcast.

Apply now using this form <https://forms.office.com/r/D0UQJ8yEU7>

Using ARC recording studio in Aden Country Park, Mintlaw and supported by the Technical Officer, you will work as a team to create a podcast.

What will you learn?

- What is a podcast
- How to write scripts
- How to record voices and interviews
- How to edit audio files
- Responding to a client brief
- Ways to market and promote your podcast

You will also develop transferable skills useful for future employment, training and volunteering:

- Creative thinking
- Teamwork
- Communication
- Time management

Do I get accreditation?

- Yes – you can complete a Dynamic Youth Award, an SQA level 3 qualification.

By committing to Cast Your Voice you are also able to:

- Contribute to Across the Grain Festival, an annual celebration of Doric and Traditional Music in Aberdeenshire
- Include volunteering on your CV
- Use the Technical Officer as a reference for future applications
- Use the podcast as part of your portfolio
- Develop further by putting yourself forward for other volunteering opportunities with the Arts and Heritage team

This is a three-day commitment and will run three times in July 2021 as follows:

7th-9th July, 12th-14th July and 19th-21st July.
