

2021

At a glance

ACROSS THE GRAIN

festival of Doric and traditional music

WARM UP

From mid-September visit our website for some fine, festival fayre to whet your appetite.
<http://bit.ly/2Uqoglh>

- Music From Mountain To Sea

New podcast from Event Academy, exploring what traditional music means to one local quine.

- Song for Aberdeenshire

New song, 'Fit Like the Day', created by pupils across Aberdeenshire, sung by Iona Fyfe.

- Mearns Writers

Podcasts of Doric poetry and prose.

- Online jigsaws

Festival photos to fankle your grey matter.

- The Art of Farming

Introduction to a new nine-month artist commission, working with Aberdeenshire's farming community.

- Nordrach on Dee, Banchory

History of this former sanatorium in Banchory.

- Scots In The Landscape

New film commission highlighting the impact landscape and language can have on learning.

WEEKEND EVENTS

Join us live as we celebrate the uniqueness of the north east.

All events are FREE. Booking recommended, opens mid-September.

Saturday 2nd October

LIVE 2.00pm - 3.30pm

Scots Song workshop

Led by Evie Waddell.

LIVE 2.30pm - 3.15pm

Nordrach on Dee, Banchory

Research on people and place.

LIVE 4.00pm - 4.30pm

Tone, Sound, Shape

New film commission featuring Paul Anderson and six key north east violins.

LIVE 7.00pm - 8.00pm

SC&T Youth highlights concert

A showcase of both live and pre-recorded music.

Fits a' Dee?

3 part-podcast on the past, present and future of Doric from young people across Aberdeenshire.

Sunday 3rd October

LIVE 2pm - 3pm

James Madison Carpenter

Explore the Elphinstone Institute's Carpenter collection, with Dr.Tom McKean.

LIVE 3.30pm - 4pm

Talking Textiles

Launch of the Book of Deer community banner-making project.

Doric poetry and prose

Collections of traditional works, recited and celebrated in this new podcast.

LIVE 4.30pm - 5.30pm

Doric Call My Bluff

Live final 2021.

How to find us...

 @creativeaberdeenshire

 Live Life Aberdeenshire